PARISH NEWS & NOTES

Preparing for the Year of Mercy

It is easy to become numb to the many opportunities to meet God. One way to deepen our relationship with God is to open our eyes to the those who are right in front of us. Every day we encounter people who are materially poor, spiritually distraught, ignored and forgotten. It is worth asking ourselves whether we actually see them when we look at them. What can we do this week to offer comfort, friendship and fellowship to our sisters and brothers? Sometimes it helps to remember that we, too, can find ourselves in need of compassion. One of the most important things that Jesus tried to teach us is that the other is really another self in a different body.
